Frances Armstrong joined Stanton Law Office as an of counsel attorney in October 2016 after practicing law in Oklahoma for 29 years. Frances has handled civil matters involving motor vehicle accidents, wrongful death, propane gas explosions, premises liability, and other personal injury matters. Frances has experience in litigation and litigation management. She has tried cases in both federal and state courts. Her appellate work in the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals and the Oklahoma Supreme Court has resulted in two published opinions. Frances' advice and counsel over the years has resulted in many favorable verdicts and summary judgments as well as amicable settlements for her clients.

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Frances graduated with honors from the University of Tulsa College of Law in 1987, where she was awarded membership in the Order of the Curule Chair and Phi Delta Phi international legal honor society. While in law school, she was also a member of the Energy Law Journal. Frances attained her undergraduate education from Central State College where she graduated with a bachelor's degree in Business Education in 1969.
