EDUCATION

- University of Missouri, graduated with honors 2020

Isabelle joined the Stanton | Barton team in October 2021 as a Legal Administrative Assistant. Isabelle graduated from the Honors Program at the University of Missouri in the fall of 2020. She will be continuing her education at Washington University St. Louis School of Law. Isabelle has dedicated her studies to working in the legal profession, striving to make a positive impact in the world. Isabelle enjoys writing, research, and communication and uses these skills to her advantage at Stanton | Barton LLC.

In her free time, Isabelle volunteers on weekends at a local animal shelter and is an advocate in the community for Type One diabetes education, environmental sustainability, and animal welfare. Throughout her life, Isabelle has written articles on a variety of topics as a volunteer writer. Isabelle writes because she believes spreading awareness about important issues leads to innovation across communities.
