Samantha joined the Stanton | Barton team in June of 2020 and supports the attorneys and paralegals as one of the firm's Legal Administrative Assistants. She has been in the legal industry for over three years and has assisted in a multitude of practice areas such as personal injury, workers compensation, business and civil litigation, along with criminal and traffic. Currently Samantha is pursuing her degree in Criminal Justice and Psychology online at Southeast Missouri State University to further her aspirations of becoming an attorney.

In her free time, Samantha enjoys spending time outdoors; going on hikes and runs with her dog, Shanti, and practicing yoga.
