Yiran Ryan Liu is an Associate with Stanton | Barton LLC. Ryan first joined the firm as part of the summer associate program, gaining experience in transportation, personal injury, and product liability litigation. After graduating from law school, he returned as an Associate and is excited to continue gaining experience in these practice areas.

Prior to practicing law, Ryan worked as a Research Technician and Lab Manager for the Gabel Lab at Washington University in St. Louis. Ryan graduated from Duke University with a bachelor's in Chemistry and from Washington University in St. Louis with a master's in Biology, before graduating from Saint Louis University School of Law with an Intellectual Property concentration. In his free time, he enjoys watching and playing sports such as tennis and basketball, as well as various video and board games in the community. Frequently serves as a guest judge for local mock trial competitions.
